further information of tained on application at this overcome, the author discovered that he had underestimated the extert and the importance of the vest task he had undertaken, and that it would occupy fully double the time and space which he had at the nutset computed. The publication of a work of such magnitude and presenting so many and such varied obstacles, seldom falls to the limited resources of one single individual, as occurs in this case. The first part of the work is now issued, partly at the request of the author and partly to afford the Foreign Community of thing an opportunity of extending that arristance to the publisher, which under the circumstances is usually so freely accorded. The price of the book complete, will be $30, and it will be published in tour parts at $7.50 such. But this objection presents itself to the sale of the parts separately, should the purchaser of one or more parts not take the others, a number will be left on the publisher's hands. To remedy stances already alluded to, it is hoped that those who see fit to patronie the undertaking by purchasing the first part, will not object to signing an engagement to take the remaining parts as they appear, or should they prefer it, to pay for the en-
